

LEESI RUSKAUP

Leesi Ruskaup is a seasoned professional with over 17 years of experience in the exotic dance industry throughout the US. Since 1990, she has also immersed herself in a wide range of circus arts, from trapeze and aerial silks to lyra and hula hoop. In 2004, Leesie began sharing her passion for dance and circus arts with people worldwide, spreading inspiration to all who share her creative spirit.

In 2012, Leesie achieved the title of Pole Champion by securing first place in the Masters Division of the Pacific Pole Championship. Since then, she has remained dedicated to her craft, consistently pushing the boundaries of creativity in both vertical pole and aerial arts. Her passion for motion and dance shines through as she extends her expertise and love for these art forms to clients around the globe.

With her innovative choreography, passionate stage presence, and personalized teaching approach, we're excited to offer you the opportunity to learn FabPole directly from its creator! Discover firsthand why instructors and students of all skill levels continue to choose Leesie for their training in this exhilarating dance form.

FABPOLE

FabPole™ is the beautiful combination of Aerial Fabric & Vertical Pole created by circus artist and pro pole dancer, Leesie Ruskaup.

In April of 2011 Leesie was asked by Elena Mikhaylova, the founder of Pole Dance Universe and former aerial and pole student of Leesie's, to create something with aerial fabric and pole. After some thought and experimentation, she combined fabric and spin pole (video above) and created FabPole for a showcase performance at Pole Dancing Universe 2011. Leesie has been teaching FabPole™ workshops and teacher training certification to pole and aerial fabric/silks lovers around the world.

If you've ever seen or played with this wonderful combination of two beautiful aerial apparatuses, you know how much fun it is! Not only can you learn how to master this art you can learn to teach it as well. Who better to learn from than the creator herself?
